

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA COAST CHAPTER #174
NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF WOMEN IN CONSTRUCTION
ANNOUNCE $1,000.00 SCHOLARSHIP FOR STUDENT PURSUING EDUCATION IN CONSTRUCTION-RELATED FIELD

The National Association of Women in Construction is a national organization for today's woman seeking to enhance her success in the construction industry. NAWIC, Chapter 174, is comprised construction industry professionals, ranging from tradeswomen, to construction attorneys, engineers and project managers.

If you are pursuing an education in a construction-related field, whether in college, trade school or an apprenticeship program, and are dedicated to the advancement of women in the construction industry, please consider completing and submitting the following scholarship application.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Postmarked no later than April 1, 2012

Your Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Mobile: _____

Email: _____

In what program are you or will you be enrolled? _____

What is your projected education completion date? _____

Current employer, if any: _____

How did you hear about this scholarship? _____

On a separate page and in essay format, please describe: (1) why you are pursuing an education in construction, (2) the special or unique talents you bring to the industry, and (3) what you have done or intend to do to support the advancement of women in the construction industry.

No later than April 1, 2012, please mail: (1) this completed application form; (2) your essay; (3) a copy of your current educational transcript (if currently enrolled in a program); and (4) a letter of recommendation from a construction industry professional or educator; to:

Joan Hertel, CIT, Chair, NAWIC Scholarship Committee
c/o Westberg + White Architects, Inc.
719 S. McClelland Street
Santa Maria, California 93454

If you have questions, or would like an electronic version of this application, please contact Joan Hertel at (805) 346-2991 or jhertel@wwarch.com